NOVEMBER. XI Month.

CASSINI next, and HUYGENS, like renown'd,
The Moons and wondrous Ring of Saturn found.
Sagacious KEPLER, still advancing saw
Th' elliptic Motion, Nature's plainest Law,
That universal acts thro' every Part:
This laid the Basis of Newtonian Art.
NEWTON! vast Mind! whose piercing Pow'rs apply'd
The secret Cause of Motion first descry'd;
Found Gravitation was the primal Spring,
That wheel'd the Planets round their central King.

There is really a great Difference in Things sometimes where there seems to be but little Distinction in Names. The Man of Honour is an internal, the Person of Honour an external, the one a real, the other a fictitious, Character. A Person of Honour may be a profane Libertine, penurious, proud, may insult his Inferiors, and defraud his Creditors; but it is impossible for a Man of Honour to be guilty of any of these. The Person of Honour may flatter for Court Favours, or cringe for Popularity; he may be for or against his Country's Good, as it suits his private Views. But the Man of Honour can do none of these. - - He

Upright and firm, and steady to his Trust,
Inflexible to Ill, and obstinately just;
The Fury of the Populace defies,
And dares the Tyrant's threatning Frown despise.
Always himself, nought can his Virtue move,
Unsway'd by Party, Hatred, Gain, or Love.
So the tall Summit of Olympus knows,
Nor raging Hurricanes, nor hoary Snows;
But high, in the superior Skies, it seen,
Above the Clouds, eternally serene;
While at its steady Foot, the rushing Rain
And rattling Thunder spend their Force in vain.

Well, my Friend, thou art now just entering the last Month of another Year. If thou art a Man of Business, and of prudent Care, be-
